Be a "New Farmer."

The farm problem of America s not in bursting barns nor highbred stock, nor soil fertility, nor even in the rural school, but in the farmer himself. Its solution is in the individual known as the new farmer. The dreary drudgery of the old farm existence is fast passing away and in its place is coming a broad, rich, free livelihood, nevthe new country life; the new farm-You are invited to come to our er builds for his wife and children a modern, sanitary, attractive home; the new farmer makes hard roads. New Hotels for Lexington.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Phoenix Hotel Company Wednesday it was decided to at once proceed to build an addition to the hotel and completely remodel the old building, which will make the Phoenix one of the largest and most complete hotel buildings in the South. The architects were instructed to at once prepare plans for the proposed changes, work upon which Value of household furniture, will begin early in the spring. It is said that the plans contemplate making the new part of the hote eight or ten stories high. These improvements have been contemplated for about a year, but active work had been postponed on account of the financial stringency. Work will also begin on the tenstory addition to the Leland Hotel next month.
